

Eight tips to become a creative individual

Creativity is a process with the goal of producing or creating innovation. Therefore, it is more about the behavior or creative behavior of the individual which cannot be expected, predicted, or measured. However, we can see the concept of creativity based on the criteria that determine the creative behavior of an individual.

- | | |
|--|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> 1. Take the initiative to produce unique and practical products, services, processes, or methods. | <input type="checkbox"/> 5. Look for new opportunities. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 2. Always lead to renewal/improvement and are not tied to routines or habits in a matter. | <input type="checkbox"/> 6. Think flexible, open, dare to try something new and ready to accept suggestions. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 3. Act to identify and find ways to solve problems. | <input type="checkbox"/> 7. Willingness to be criticized and allow doing mistakes. It must not be considered as any failure. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 4. Be sensitive to problems and always consider the problem as an opportunity. | <input type="checkbox"/> 8. Highly motivated in what is done and is not easily discouraged. |

Prepared by:

Merlyn Rita anak Buncha,
Dr Salmah Topimin,
Entrepreneurship Lecturer,
Faculty of Business, Economics and Accountancy,
University Malaysia Sabah.