

A GLANCE AT PADDY FIELD IN SABAH: KG. KIAU NULUH, KOTA BELUD

Winnie Kinsui
Jakily Kinsui
Jaratin Lily***

*Corresponding Author

Brief Information on Kg. Kiau Nuluh

Kampung Kiau Nuluh is a village located in the foothills of Mount Kinabalu, near Kota Belud, Sabah. The village has gained attention for various reasons, including its potential as a geopark site, the cultivation of coffee (Mount Kinabalu Coffee) by local farmers to improve their livings, and its proximity to Mount Nungkok. Furthermore, the village is known for its paddy fields, which are a major socio-economic activity in the area.

The residents of Kg. Kiau Nuluh have been serving as porters and mountain guides for generations, with their community being one of the earliest contributors to this role. Currently, a significant number of the mountain porters originate from Kg. Kiau Nuluh, highlighting the enduring tradition of this essential service within the village.

Visitors to Kg. Kiau Nuluh can immerse themselves in the village's peaceful ambiance, enjoy the cool mountain air, and take in the stunning views of the surrounding hills and valleys. The village is often a preferred destination for those seeking to escape the hustle and bustle of the city and connect with nature. The village offers several homestays for visitors looking to immerse themselves in the local environment during their stay.

Figure 1: Location Map of Kg. Kiau Nuluh

Captivating Moments in Kiau Nuluh's Paddy Fields

Photo 1: Paddy Filed with Majestic Mount Kinabalu View

Photo 2: Planting the Paddy

Photo 3: Ripe Paddy

Photo 4: Paddy Field 1

Photo 5: Paddy Field 2

Photo 6: Planting the Paddy

Photo 7: Paddy Field 3

Photo 8: Paddy Field 4

Photo 9: Paddy Field 5

Photo 10: Paddy Field 6

Photo 11: Paddy Field 7