

UMS FKAL Students Embrace Confident Communication Skills in Exclusive Session with Labuan Toastmasters Club

Participants: 250 participants comprised of interested individuals, schools and Universiti Malaysia Sabah, Kampus Antarabangsa Labuan (UMSKAL) students currently enrolled in the GT00503 Business Communication came together to participate in a seminar titled "Unleash Your Potential: Speaking and Presenting with Confidence".

This seminar is one of the events of UMS's annual Tamu Gadang, a multi-day celebration that features performances, sales stalls, exhibitions, and competitions. These activities provide a lively preamble to the highly anticipated 2023 25th UMS Convocation, which is scheduled to take place from December 11-14, 2023, at the main campus in Kota Kinabalu.

"Unleash Your Potential: Speaking and Presenting with Confidence" which involved working together with the Labuan Toastmasters Club, intended to provide students with the knowledge and skills they would need to communicate in public and speak in front of an audience both now and in the future. The current president of the Labuan Toastmasters Club, Clarence Tessensohn, and vice president, Susanna Koh, spoke about vital subjects like speech preparation and content, boosting self-confidence, rules for spontaneous speaking, answering difficult questions, and practical advice on giving effective speeches.
