“Unleash your potential: Speaking and presenting with confidence is a seminar conducted in conjunction with the UMS Tamu Gadang – a series of dynamic student-organized events, including competitions, exhibitions, sales stalls, and performances that serves as a prelude to the upcoming 25th UMS Convocation to be held to the main campus in Kota Kinabalu from 11th – 13th November 2023. Two distinguished toastmasters (DTM) from Labuan Toastmasters Club, a body that is well-known for its proficiency in refining presentation and public speaking abilities shared their knowledge, expertise, and experience during the engaging event. Clarence Tessensohn, the current president and Susanna Koh, vice president of the Labuan Toastmasters Club discussed important topics such as speech preparation and content, building self- confidence, guidelines for impromptu speaking, speaking in front of the recording device, responding to challenging questions, and some take-home tips on delivering quality speech.
