

NURUL NAZIRA HAMZAH

English Language Teacher

ABOUT ME

I am an English teacher with 12 years of experience teaching students from one of Malaysia's public universities. Before, I taught in secondary school and private colleges. ever since joining the English team in my department. I've been handling the "Oral Communication in English" course; which led me to venture into researching enthusiasm and motivation for class participation. Over the years, I found that more real-life engagement of the target language needed to be done and i am excited to start!
